Regarding your recent inquiry I can supply, subject to prior sale;

$2.50	1846-C Ex. Fine.....	$250.00

$5.00	1841 As beautiful a Gem as I have ever seen.....	500.00

Naturally, you may examine the pieces if you wish (except the $5.00 1841 - I don't want to send that out, if I do it's a sale — It's too beautiful to take any chances on handling).

Dear Stan:

I apologize profusely for not answering your letter to me regarding the offering of coins, but I have been somewhat under here closing one auction, getting to the printers for another and trying to consolidate Abe's and my offices.

I do not believe that I would be interested in any of the pieces offered as at present, I am sure you are aware, our stock is rather large and capital is tight so I like to conserve it.

I hope to see you at the NASC show in February. In any event, you will receive a catalogue of material that you might be interested in.

Yours sinterely,

Mike
